Why Choose Competitive?

The Hamilton City Ballet Competitive Team is built on the foundation of growth, discipline, and artistic development. Our true goal as a studio is to help each dancer achieve their full potential while offering valuable performance experience and feedback.

Every rehearsal, class, and performance is a step towards a greater future:

- A career in professional dance
- Scholarships and opportunities through competitive results
- Teaching opportunities
- The discipline and work ethic competitive dance can create no matter what future path your little dancer will choose
